THEOLOGY DEPARTMENT

CLASSES TAUGHT:
World Religion, Theology

ABOUT ME:

I am happily married to my beautiful and talented wife Rakhi now for fifteen years. We have three children, Gianna, Judah, and Josiah. I am blessed to be starting my 16th year at Bishop Foley Catholic this year. Before coming to Foley, I spent seven years in campus and young adult ministry in Pennsylvania and within the Archdiocese of Detroit. I graduated from Michigan State University in 2001 with a degree in Ancient History, and since then have been granted an associate degree in Religious Education from St. Francis University and a graduate degree in theology from Sacred Heart Major Seminary (2009). In 2021 I released my first book called "Confessions of an Ugly-Bible Reader," published by ACTA Publications.

GRADING POLICY

I grade by total points.

HOMEWORK/LATE WORK POLICY

All work can be found on Google Classroom. Students should contact me (via email) in order to get details on what was missed during absence. I try to be generous in regards to late work, but it is the student's responsibility to contact me and make arrangements for turning in late assignments. Typically, if a student misses a day of work, that assignment would be due the day after they return. If a student misses a class day when a test is taken, he or she should expect to take the test on the return day.

HOW CAN A STUDENT SUCCEED IN YOUR CLASS?

Ask questions! Never assume that you may be the only one who has a question or is confused. Also, please make sure to check Google Classroom each and every day.
