ENGLISH DEPARTMENT

CLASSES TAUGHT:

British Literature, World Literature, Publications

ABOUT ME:

I'm one of the 'new' English teachers although I'm not a new teacher. My classes include World Literature (Freshmen), British Literature (Juniors) and Publications (I monitor the creation of our yearbook.) Susquehanna University is my alma mater where I majored in Communication and Theatre Arts.

GRADING POLICY

I grade on a points system.

HOMEWORK/LATE WORK POLICY

Homework assignments are posted on Google Classroom. An email from a student regarding an illness or excused absence is greatly appreciated. Work due on the day of an illness is due the correspondingly number of days a student is excused. I do not accept late work.

HOW CAN A STUDENT SUCCEED IN YOUR CLASS?

Students can do well in this class by: coming to class prepared, remain focused on the lesson, participate in class discussions, do the work, aspire to greatness!
